

The International Law Student Association and the Center for International and Comparative Law present:

"A Conversation About Current Human Rights Violations in Algeria"

Panelists:

Andrew G. Farrand, author of numerous articles on Algeria, photographer, and media personality.

Hamid Lellou, certified mediator and conflict resolution and operational culture analyst.

Elaine Mokhtefi, American writer and painter.

Facilitator:

Farida Bouattoura, human rights activist, educator, and author.